

Michigan School Improvement Workshop for ISDs, RESAs, and Educational Organizations

Monday, October 26, 2009 9:00-9:30 a.m. Registration
9:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Program

Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center, East Lansing

This one-day workshop is designed to be an information and strategy session that will provide a preview of the AdvancED website for ISDs/RESAs to support their continuous school improvement efforts with local schools and districts.

The participants will also have the opportunity to participate in a training with Laura Lefkowits, Vice President of Policy & Planning Services of the Mid-continent Research for Education and Learning (McREL). Ms. Lefkowits will be discussing:

Forward Thinking: Changing and Preparing for Future Learning

- Learn about key trends of the future (drivers of change) and discuss their implications
- Learn the basics of the scenario-planning process
- Develop multiple scenario frameworks in response to a compelling question or issue
- Identify strategic recommendations and leadership responsibilities to prepare for the future

Laura Lefkowits, M.P.A.

As Vice President of Policy & Planning Services at McREL, Ms. Lefkowits is the leader of McREL's scenario-based planning services and has been certified as a scenario planner by the Global Business Network. She has presented to numerous national audiences about drivers of change that may impact the future, has worked with organizations to support their own scenario planning efforts, and has written scenarios.

SB-CEUs: .5 State Board Continuing Education Credits may be granted to each participant pending approval. To receive the SB-CEUs, you must be on time and stay until the end of the program.
