

21st Annual Support Staff Conference for Administrative Professionals
Thursday and Friday, November 15 -16, 2007, Grand Rapids

Opening Keynoter – Joseph Hoedel, Ph.D., author, speaker, consultant, former high school teacher, and college professor will present “The Importance of Being A Positive Role Model, Every Day!” Here’s what people say about him: “Joe was AWESOME! It [the presentation] was very heartwarming and hit home! “I’m absolutely positive we had the best speaker in the country.”

30 breakout sessions to choose from including:

Sehi Computer Lab - The ever-popular hands-on technology-related training will be available thanks to Sehi!

SAPC (School Administrative Professional Certification) Classes – Six required plus numerous electives will be offered. What is SAPC Voluntary Certification? Check it out today! <http://www.gomiem.org/SAPC.html>

Outstanding professional development designed for office professionals at the building level, central office, and support services. Breakout sessions to choose from include: school law, crisis management, data and record keeping, first aid and emergency procedures, customer service, business of schools, anger management, special education, board meetings, background checks and fingerprinting.

Conference registration will be available after Labor Day at www.gomiem.org